

The Delhi School of Music seeks applications for the post of Director

We are looking for a person who is well versed in western classical music and has some experience of music pedagogy. S/he will be required to oversee and handle the work associated with running the School and organising workshops, school concerts and other activities, in addition to improving musical standards of teachers and pupils. S/he should have a vision for taking the school forward as the pre-eminent school for western music in the city of Delhi, and should be willing to take on administrative and managerial responsibilities in addition to musical activities.

Remuneration will be in accordance with qualifications and experience.

Please send your resume, a letter of motivation and supporting material (videos of teaching situations, performances, etc.) to (delhimusicsociety@rediffmail.com) latest by 01st February 2018.